Takes Fifth Amendment Stand

Baker's Secretary Is Mum

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nancy Carole Tyler, Bobby Baker's striking brunette secretary, refused today to answer questions from Senate investigators, but denied she was "guilty of any legal or moral wrongdoing."

The former Tennessee beauty queen, speaking with her Southern accent, read a statement in which she invoked her 5th Amendment protection against self-incrimination, accused the Senate Rules Committee of invading her privacy, and said its investigation served no valid legislative purpose.

Baker had any dealings with a convicted white slaver.

Baker, who resigned Oct. 7 as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, cited constitutional grounds, including the Fifth Amendment, for his refusal to answer.

He also hit at the Senate Rules Committee's probe as a "legal jungle" and an unlawful "legislative trial."

Myron G. Ehrlich, Miss Tyler's Washington lawyer, declined in advance of today's public hearing to discuss whether she would be a more informative witness.

He told a reporter "she will not object to television coverage" of her testimony.

Baker balked Tuesday at television coverage, and the committee ordered the television cameras, as well as still and newsreel cameras, removed from the Senate's big caucus room where the hearing was held.

Roger Hilsman Resigns State Department Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—Assistant Secretary of State Roger Hilsman, a key designer of U.S. policy in South Viet Nam, has resigned.

His resignation, announced Tuesday with a "Dear Roger" letter from President Johnson, came a day after the administration disclosed a shakeup in Viet Nam policy making.

The State Department revealed then formation of a new task force to "sharpen the focus of handling Vietnamese problems." The new committee was put under William H. Sullivan, a special assistant to W. Averell Harriman, undersecretary for political affairs and an expert on Southeast Asia.

There have been reports of differences in the government on how to intensify the U.S.-backed war against Communist guerrillas in South Viet Nam.

Hilsman said his decision to resign as assistant secretary for Far Eastern affairs "was not related to any policy issues."

In making public the Johnson-Hilsman letters, the White House said the 44-year-old official was leaving to return to academic life.

Seventh Juror Accepted For Ruby's Trial

Panel Is Half Complete As Pace Quickens

DALLAS (AP) — A second woman was accepted today as a juror in Jack Ruby's murder trial, bringing the total sworn in to seven.

She is Mrs. Gwen L. English, 45, a housewife who also works as a bookkeeper.

This was the second consecutive day when two jurors were taken.

Earlier today another juror, R.J. Flechtner Jr., 29, was selected. He is married and has two children.

He passed the tests of first the state and then the defense in record time for this trial — 29 minutes.

He said he saw a rerun of the televised shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald. But he was not closely questioned by either side as to whether it made a deep impression on him.

Flechtner is a Christian Scientist. As to the reasons why Ruby shot Oswald, Flechtner said he had been curious on that point. But when chief defense counsel Melvin M. Belli asked whether he has any opinion on this, he replied "Not really."

Prior to Flechtner, another prospective candidate was excused when he said he is opposed to capital punishment.

Principals in the courtroom agree, generally, that a jury may be complete by the end of this week or early in the next.

Moyer Elected Chairman Of Extension Panel

George H. Moyer, representing the city of Sedalia, was elected chairman of the 1964 Pettis County University of Missouri Extension Council Tuesday at the annual organizational meeting of the council. Other officers elected were vice-chairman, Jesse Fairfax, LaMonte Township; treasurer, Louis R. Hughes Jr., Sedalia Township; and secretary, Mrs. Charles Snow, Dresden Township.

The meeting was held at Flat Creek Inn. Newly elected members of the council attended a training session during the morning. All council members attended the noon luncheon compliments of the Union Savings Bank.

C. W. Monsees, DVM, retiring chairman, presided during the afternoon meeting. Following introductions of all council members of guests was the 1964 election of council officers.

Larry Hale, newly appointed extension center director, discussed plans ahead for Pettis County.

Wayne L. Atkins, district director from the University of Missouri, presented an illustrated talk on the "Responsibilities of the County Council."

Guests included members of the County Court: C. Berry Elliott, E. L. Birdsong, and C. M. Purchase; and Mrs. Larry Hale.

Judge Vows To Break Up Drag Racing

Fines Pair $100; Promises Them Jail Next Time

Judge Frank Armstrong fined two drag racers $100 and court costs each, gave them suspended 30-day jail sentences and then issued the pair a sharply worded reprimand in Magistrate Court Wednesday morning.

Joe Dale Keightley, 17, Pacific Junction, Ia., and Richard Herbert Geer, 25, Route 2, both entered guilty pleas to charges of careless and imprudent driving by drag racing.

"I'm going to break up drag racing in Pettis County if it's the last thing I do," Judge Armstrong told the two young men.

In suspending the jail sentences, Armstrong told the two if they were ever brought before him again for drag racing they would serve that 30 days plus another 90.

Highway Patrol Trooper Pete Stohr, who made the arrest, testified that he observed the start of Geer and Keightley's drag race and heard squealing tires about 4:15 p.m. Monday as he had pulled up to the intersection of Third and Limit. The cars were northbound on Limit as he observed them, Stohr said.

Stohr testified he pursued the two cars north to the overpass over Main Street and Keightley slowed at that point as the highway narrowed. Geer then passed two trucks and Stohr said by his patrol car he checked Geer's auto at a speed of 100 m.p.h. just north of the overpass before he pulled over.

Keightley was unable to pay his $100 fine and Judge Armstrong remanded him to the custody of Sheriff Emmett Fairfax to serve out the fine in the county jail at the rate of $2 per day.

Armstrong had set bond for the two at $1,000 at the time of their arrest. Keightley was unable to make bond and had been held in jail up to the time of the hearing on Wednesday.

Tax Cut Approved

Johnson to Ink Bill at 6:30 p.m.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate passed the tax cut bill today 74-19 and sent it to President Johnson who immediately arranged to sign it at 6:30 p.m. EST and address the American people at 6:45 on its meaning.

The reduction, biggest in the nation's history and averaging about 19 per cent for 80 million individual taxpayers, will be reflected in pay checks starting March 4. Lower withholding rates provided in the bill go into effect then.

New Champ May Retire From Ring

Says He Proved His Point And Is Through Talking

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A subdued Cassius Clay, the new heavyweight boxing champion, told a press conference today that he seriously is thinking about retirement from the ring.

"No I am not joking," the 22-year old Louisville sensation said. "I don't like to fight, I don't like to get hurt. I don't like to hurt anybody."

"I only fight to make a living and when I have enough money I won't fight anymore."

Cassius, talking in a low monotone that contrasted greatly to his earlier loud, shouting antics, contradicted himself immediately, however, by saying his immediate future was fighting.

He declared he would again fight Sonny Liston, whom he stopped Tuesday night in the seventh round technical knockout, or any other fighter the public wanted him to meet.

The new champion was asked if he planned to retire after one more big fight, which now would be expected to gross perhaps $10 million.

It was at this point that Clay dropped his retirement bombshell, saying in a low voice, "I am thinking about retiring right now."

However, few of the newsmen took the statement seriously since the young descendant of a Kentucky slave has proved himself one of the greatest actors ever to appear on the sports scene.

Clay said he was not aware that Liston had injured himself as reported after the fight and later confirmed by a team of eight physicians.

Greeks Plan Police Force

New Issue In Cyprus

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Plans by President Makarios to increase his Greek Cypriot security force and disarm all irregulars on Cyprus has injected an explosive new issue into the crisis in the eastern Mediterranean.

The Greek Cypriot president said his order Tuesday to create a special 5,000-man police force was designed "not only for the island's security and return to normality, but also to face any other unpleasant situation."

In a move obviously aimed at the Turkish Cypriot minority opposing his Greek Cypriot regime, Makarios said any Cypriot carrying arms illegally would be disarmed and anyone attempting to import arms "will be prosecuted."

Turkish Cypriots immediately challenged the constitutionality of the order, which would raise the legal Greek Cypriot armed strength to nearly 7,000 men, about the size of the British peacekeeping force on Cyprus. The Turkish Cypriots said that under the constitution the special force would have to be made up of 60 per cent Greek Cypriots and 40 per cent Turkish Cypriots.

Greek Cypriot officials said Turkish Cypriots would be welcome to join the force if they swear allegiance to the Makarios government and promise to defend the island's independence and territorial integrity.

Maj. Gen. R. M. Carver, commander of the British peacekeeping force, termed Makarios' order "a very clever document."

He said it could be interpreted as a move to deprive persons in control of private armed forces of power, or a move to immobilize the Turkish Cypriot police by disarming everyone.

Since fighting broke out between Greek and Turkish Cypriots in December, thousands of civilians have armed to form vigilante groups.

The Greek Cypriots outnumber the Turkish faction 4 to 1, and their armed irregulars have been estimated to number as many as 30,000 men and women.

The legal armed strength of the Greek Cypriots numbers 1,200 police and 270 army troops.

Makarios recently admitted his government has been importing arms "to safeguard the territorial integrity of the island in face of threats of a Turkish invasion."

Sonic Boom Testing Lab End Sought

Oklahoma City Council Votes To Ask Suspension

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The Federal Aviation Agency may be forced to find a new laboratory for its sonic boom tests. The City Council voted 7-0 Tuesday to ask suspension of the supersonic flights.

The council asked a three-month suspension and an FAA spokesman said he understands the tests will be halted when an official copy of the council's action reaches Washington.

Gordon Bain, deputy FAA administrator in charge of supersonic development, said prior to the beginning of the tests Feb. 3 if Oklahoma City residents reacted adversely to the sonic booms an alternate site for the experiments might be selected.

But citizens' groups already are trying to counteract the action of the City Council. The Chamber of Commerce adopted a resolution Tuesday urging continuation of the tests which are designed to determine the effect of repeated sonic booms before approving development of commercial supersonic transport planes.

Fog Delays Hunt For Jet Remains

No Clues Found As to Plane's Crash Cause

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A dense fog hung over Lake Pontchartrain today, delaying a search by boats and divers for the remains of an Eastern Airlines jetliner that crashed into the lake.

All 58 persons aboard perished when the four-engine DC8 plummeted into the mammoth lake at a spot about 20 miles north of New Orleans.

The jetliner, bound from Mexico to New York, took off at 2:01 a.m. Tuesday and was climbing normally when it suddenly vanished from the control radar screens. Captain William Zeng never spoke a word of warning or trouble and investigators have divulged no clues as to what went wrong.

A Coast Guard spokesman said at mid-morning that search operations had been stalled completely by the fog shrouding the lake. He said: "The fog is so thick one boat can't see another."

Civilian Aeronautics Board investigators called a press conference for 11 a.m. (CST). The FBI joined the probe. A spokesman said the federal agency is trying to "develop any information indicating a possible violation of federal law."

"The jet, with a capacity of 126 passengers, was on the second lap of a flight from Mexico City to New Orleans, to Atlanta, to Washington, to New York City. It had 51 passengers and a crew of seven."

By nightfall, which forced suspension of the search, only bits of the wreckage had been recovered, along with what was described as bits of bodies.

2 States Will Complete GOP Delegate Lists

WASHINGTON (AP) — Oklahoma and North Carolina this weekend will become the first states to complete their delegations to the Republican National Convention next summer.

Almost all of the 46 delegates from the two states are expected to back Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona for the GOP presidential nomination.

Goldwater will be on hand in Greensboro when North Carolina Republicans meet Saturday to pick their state's 26 delegates to the San Francisco convention July 13-16.

The senator says he expects to win at least 24 of the delegates and a state Republican spokesman predicts Goldwater could easily capture all 26 votes.

Goldwater also was scheduled to attend the Oklahoma convention in Oklahoma City, where 10 at-large delegates will be elected, but had to cancel out.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The state attorney asked today he has asked for medical records on the examination of Sonny Liston after Liston lost his heavyweight title to Cassius Clay Tuesday night.

State Atty. Richard Gerstein said "I have requested the Miami Beach Boxing Commission to make all the records available to me."

Herbert Hoover's Condition Is Improved Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover, seriously ill, was reported definitely improved today.

Hoover, 89, was still having some respiratory difficulty from a pulmonary infection but the infection itself was responding to therapy, his doctors said.

Kidney bleeding has stopped, they said in a bulletin issued shortly before 10 a.m. EST.

A bulletin Tuesday night said Hoover remained strong and alert despite his age and illness but had spent a rather restless day due to his respiratory difficulty.

First Clinic Sunday

Answering The Questions
About Oral Polio Vaccine

With the support of the Bothwell Hospital medical staff the Sedalia Jaycees are conducting a mass polio immunization clinic for Sedalia and Pettis County beginning this Sunday. Goal of the massive program is complete eradication of polio from the county.

Following are a series of questions most often asked concerning the oral immunization. Officials of the program emphasize that a specific question not covered here should be taken to your family physician. Familiar with your case, he is better equipped to answer your inquiries.

The questions:

Q. What is the "SOS" program?

A. "SOS" is the symbol for a mass polio immunization program to be held in Pettis County. "Sabin On Sundays" is the name.

Q. Who should take this vaccine?

A. All persons residing in Pettis County. This includes everybody, from babies six months of age to senior citizens.

Q. When will the program start?

A. The first date is Sunday, March 1, and subsequent clinics in the three-dose immunization program are set for April 5 and May 3. All of the doses should be received to obtain total immunity against the three known polio viruses.

Q. What will happen at the clinics?

A. Each person will be given a dose of Sabin polio vaccine; two drops of vaccine on a lump of sugar.

Q. What will this cost?

A. A donation of 25 cents to help defray the cost of the program is being requested for each of the three doses of oral vaccine. Everyone will be immunized whether he contributes or not.

Q. What time may I go to the clinic?

A. The clinics will be open from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. It will take you just a few minutes to get your vaccine.

Q. I have had the Salk vaccine injections. Should I take this too?

A. By all means. While the Salk vaccine was a very important step, this vaccine provides more complete protection for a longer period of time. Sabin vaccine also prevents you from being a carrier of the dread virus. This means protection for the whole community because the virus can be eliminated from the area.

Q. Is there any danger from taking the vaccine?

A. It has been given to millions of people here in the United States as well as millions elsewhere in the world. There have been no reactions in all these people.

Q. What about pregnant women?

A. It has been given to millions of people here in the United States as well as millions elsewhere in the world. There have been no reactions in all these people.

Unions Ready
To Load Wheat
After Boycott

WASHINGTON (AP)—Waterfront unions are ready to resume loading ships with U.S. wheat for the Soviet Union by the end of the week after ending a 10-day boycott.

The White House announced late Tuesday that the unions had agreed to load the wheat after President Johnson pledged that—in all future grain deals with the Soviet Union—half of the cargo would be carried in U.S. ships.

The late President John F. Kennedy had agreed to ship half of the grain in American ships when the sales were arranged last fall. But the way was left open then to waive the requirement.

The 50-50 agreement will not cover the sale of 1 million tons of wheat to the Soviet Union by the Continental Grain Co., because final details of that deal have already been worked out.

Three unions—the International Longshoremen's Association, the National Maritime Union and the Seafarers' International Union—started the boycott after the U.S. Maritime Administration agreed to let Continental ship 62 per cent of the wheat in non-American ships.

A. They should take the vaccine. It will protect them without causing them any trouble and it may give temporary protection to the newborn.

Q. If I am sick, should I take the vaccine?

A. If you are troubled with diarrhea or vomiting, it would be better for you to take the vaccine at a later date as the vaccine works in the intestinal tract.

Q. I am a diabetic. Should I take the vaccine? What about the lump of sugar?

A. Diabetics, like all others, should take the vaccine. The sugar lump contains 9 calories, so it will not upset the diabetic. If you wish, the dose can be given directly from a dropper.

Q. Does the vaccine taste bad?

A. There is no taste to it.

Q. Will one dose give me complete protection?

A. This first dose will give protection to Type I only. Type II and Type III will be given at similar clinics on the later dates, Sunday, April 5, and Sunday, May 3.

Q. Who is sponsoring the clinics?

A. The medical staff of the Bothwell Memorial Hospital and the Sedalia Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Q. Who recommends the Sabin oral vaccine?

A. The National Institute of Health, the Surgeon General of the United States, the medical staff of Bothwell Hospital and your family doctor.

Q. Why can't my family doctor give the vaccine?

A. He can. However, because of the increasing number of cases of Type I polio, the physicians of Pettis County have agreed that the mass immunization program should be undertaken NOW.

Q. Who developed the Sabin vaccine?

A. Dr. Albert Bruce Sabin, an associate with the Children's Research Foundation at Cincinnati, Ohio. He formulated the theory upon which the vaccine associated with his name has been produced in quantity and in 1956 first set forth in detail the path by which he believed polio spread. Graduated from New York University, he was first a research associate in bacteriology at New York University of Medicine, later a physician at Bellevue Hospital in New York, then a fellow in medicine at National Resea Council at Lister Institute in England. He was at Rockefeller Institute from 1935 to 1939, has been at the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine since then continuing his fight against polio and other crippling diseases through basic research.

Q. Where are the clinics to be located?

A. At five Sedalia public schools. They are: Heber U. Hunt, Seventh and Warren Horace Mann, 16th and Stewart; Hubbard High School, Osage and Henry; Washington, Sixth and Engineer; and Whittier, 907 East 16th.

Hoover Shows
Improvement
At Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover remains "strong and alert despite his age and illness," and his kidney bleeding has stopped, his doctors report.

The latest medical bulletin, issued Tuesday night, said that Hoover, 89, had spent "a rather restless day due to respiratory (breathing) difficulty."

"His temperature is lower. His blood pressure remains normal. His heart beat is somewhat rapid, but the rhythm is normal and there is no evidence of heart failure," said the bulletin from Hoover's hotel suite at the Waldorf Towers.

There were no immediate plans to move the nation's 31st president to a hospital.

The announcement Tuesday that Hoover was seriously ill followed by 18 months an operation he underwent at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center to remove a cancerous tumor from his intestinal tract.

A week after the Aug. 28, 1962, operation, hospital officials said they did not anticipate a recurrence of the malignancy. It was the same hospital in which his gall bladder had been removed in 1958.

"The present illness," his three doctors reported Tuesday, "is due to bleeding from the right kidney, (with that cause) probably secondary to a kidney stone. The clinical picture has been complicated by a respiratory infection."

missionaries to be remembered in March.

Menus and plans for the Lenten dinner which is to be served Feb. 27 were discussed. It was decided that the March meeting be held at the church after the Lenten dinner.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses following the meeting.

The least coin offering and dedication was given by Mrs. Manning DeWitt who also read the names of the missionaries to be remembered in prayer.

The March 19 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Thomas, 1634 West Fifth.

BOYS CLUB
NOTES

New members are: Charles Mooneyhan, Steve Fritz, David Schondelmeyer, Mike Lefebvre, Gerald Kindle, Phillip Kindle and Gart Rhodes.

In a fast and well played basketball game Saturday morning the Arnolds won from the Herrings by a score of 56 to 54. Jack Arnold, who captained the winners, was outstanding with his rebounding and fine all around play. Paul Cason also gave a fine exhibition of all around play and scored 28 points.

Gene Sullivan assistant regional director of Boys Clubs of Chicago was a visitor in Sedalia Tuesday meeting with officials of the local club and assisting in the preparations for the opening of the club on a five days a week basis.

The intermediates enjoyed some excellent basketball activity Saturday afternoon with a well played and close game. There were no league games scheduled for Saturday due to the soccer team going to St. Louis. Wednesday evening Bill Dixon had charge of the basketball program, while Saturday Bill Hodges worked with the boys in the morning and Al Soanka worked the afternoon session.

The sectional basketball tournament for intermediates will be held Mar. 6-7 and possibly March 8 depending on how many teams will enter the tournament. To be eligible to participate players must be 14-15-16 years of age and a member of the club. Sedalia has been extended an invitation to send a team to the tournament. All teams are from the Sho-Me-Area.

Each spring Boys Club conducts National Boys Club Week to focus attention on its work of creating juvenile decency and eliminating juvenile delinquency. This year the event will be in April and special programs will be arranged to stimulate interest in Boys Club work.

The victims were the children of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson, who were away from home at the time. They were Karyl, 14; Kaye, 9; Karl, 2, and Kelley Thompson, 11 weeks.

Packing Plant
Landmark Razed
By Raging Fire

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—A 16-hour fire Tuesday destroyed the old Wilson & Co. packing plant, a landmark in the Kansas City bottom since the 1890s. The loss was estimated at $1 million.

The four-building complex had been sub-divided into a warehouse after the 1951 Kaw River flood when Wilson abandoned it.

Five firemen were treated for smoke inhalation and bruises suffered from falling bricks. One of them, Robert E. Sweeney was hospitalized. He suffered a scalp cut and fracture of the left ankle and right arm. Sweeney was struck by a window casement and bricks. Several walls crumbled as the blaze gutted supports.

Nearby buildings east of the old packing plant were saved from damage when one of its walls fell inward, smothering spreading flames.

The first alarm was turned in at 4 a.m. Twelve companies of firemen fought the flames. Most of the loss was in contents which included plumbing supplies, furniture, 150,000 bushels of government wheat and other commodities.

Call Second
Boycott Of Class Rooms

BOSTON (AP)—For the second time in eight months, civil rights leaders called a boycott of the Boston public schools today to protest alleged de facto segregation.

Boycott leaders, who described the movement a "freedom stay-out," asked all parents, Negro and white, to keep their children out of the public schools today. The Boston school enrollment is 93,000.

Parents were asked to send their children to 37 freedom schools, set up in churches and other centers, for classes in "citizenship and the freedom movement."

Leaders of the boycott contend that 14,000 Negro students in the city's public schools are concentrated primarily in 13 schools with predominantly Negro student bodies.

A majority on the five-member school committee says that racial imbalance in schools is not due to any action on the part of the school system but results from the fact certain schools are located in predominantly Negro neighborhoods.

Plans for the boycott received strong support as well as some criticism from educators, clergymen and public officials.

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I just caught up with some of your streamlined, 20th century advice to "nosey landladies."

No wonder people like you. You conveniently look the other way while they raise hell. You call it "minding your own business."

I'm a landlady who doesn't stand for any kitchy-koolin' on my premises. I own two buildings and my caretakers have orders to tell if any female tenant has male guests who leave after 1:00 a.m. Now you know very well, Ann Landers, that a single girl living alone who entertains men until dawn is not playing scrabble.

It's not enough that people pay their rent and not rip out the plumbing. I expect decent morals from my tenants and if they don't measure up, they can live someplace else. — AUNT NETTIE FORM WILKES-BARRE.

Dear Aunt Nettie: Don't deceive yourself into believing your rules have saved even one maiden from taking the primrose path. If that's the path they want to travel, they'll travel it. And by the time a girl is old enough to rent her own apartment, she's decided.

Dear Ann Landers: I am so ashamed of my problem I can't ask questions of anyone who knows me.

I am 16, a junior in high school, get good grades, have lots of friends and am considered an extrovert. I go to bed every night at about 10:00 p.m. but I can't sleep because I am afraid. Don't ask me what I'm afraid of—I don't know. Sometimes I'm afraid I'll get sick because I don't get enough sleep. Other times I'm afraid someone will get into my room and harm me. I always sleep with a stuffed dog so I will have something to cling to.

I baby-sit almost every Friday and Saturday night am never afraid in anyone else's home. Do I have insomnia or a loose screw? Please help me.—WARREN, Pa.

Dear Warren: The fear of sleeplessness can be more damaging than lack of sleep.

See your family doctor. He will explain that many people who fear they are not getting enough sleep, get more sleep than they think. He may also tell you to retire at 11:00 instead of 10:00, drink a glass of warm milk, take a warm bath, and read in bed for 15 minutes . . . etc.

Dear Ann Landers: The letter from the young mother who was being driven nuts by her four young children could have been written by me.

I was in worse shape than she was. I lived with a haunting fear that I might go completely off my rocker and do something drastic. A friend suggested a

Ozark Playground Group Low on Cash

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — "We are in a pretty bad fix," the treasurer of the Ozark Playground Association told the group Monday. "We have owed money before, but never this much."

Jack Wells, treasurer of the Missouri-Arkansas tourist promotion group, said it owed about $38,000 and that accounts receivable amount to only $8,500. Wells said:

"I think we can whip it if we will get together and work at it."

About $700 was collected on the spot.

C. W. Johnson, managing editor of the Springfield News-papers Inc., was elected president; Joe Basore, Hardy, Ark., was elected executive vice president, and Wells was re-elected treasurer.

Johnson, who had served as president in 1956-57, is the first to be returned to the post.

A three man committee, headed by Evans McReynolds, a Springfield banker, was named to find a successor for Jack Howe who resigned last week as executive director.

solution. I believe it saved my sanity and maybe it will save hers, too.

One Sunday I announced to my husband and children that I was going to my room for three hours to read, and relax, and they'd have to get along without me. I made it clear that nothing short of an explosion would get me out of that room.

At first the kids came to the door, one after the other—each with an excuse. But I held firm, through all the whining, fighting and tears and finally they were sure I meant business.

My husband, when he knew he had no choice, dealt with the "emergencies" beautifully.

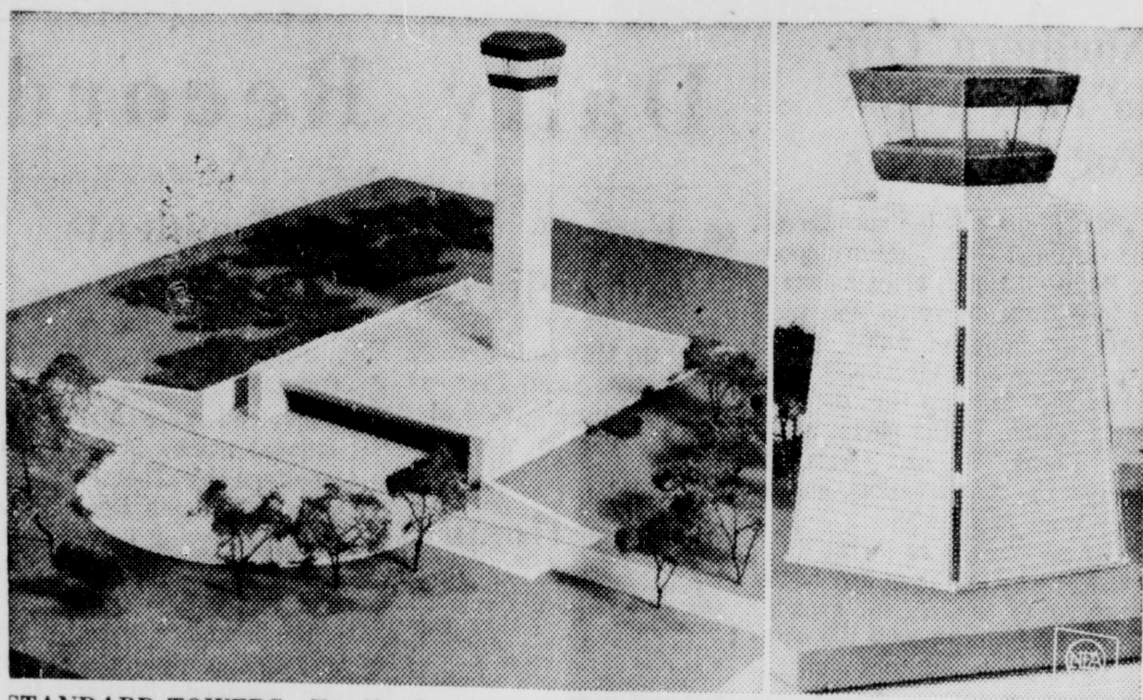

I have kept this up for almost a year and now I know I've made it.—S. B.

Dear S. B.: In the face of everything that's been said in behalf of togetherness, I'm delighted to print a word in support of "apartness." Thanks for writing.

Husband's Culinary Efforts Hard to Stop, Once Started

By JOY STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — Getting my husband to cook is a formidable task. But once he's started, it's even harder to get him to stop.

When he gets going his enthusiasm is as boundless as the ingredients he uses. But he finds it difficult to limit his culinary efforts to the needs of an ordinary — size family, his talents being more in keeping with those of an Army cook.

If he decides to whip up a bowl of soup for a midnight snack, stand back! It will overflow the biggest pot in the house. Starting with a couple of cans of condensed soup, he adds his own personalizing touch with a lavish hand — cans of beans, corn, peas and onions, potatoes, ketchup, mustard and anything else he can find.

operating he comes up with some imaginative, if somewhat indigestible, concoctions. He once decided to make stew and, lacking any meat, used a can of tuna fish as the basic ingredient.

When my husband creates a salad he feels no dressing we have on hand is a fit accompaniment. So he formulates his own.

He recently started out to make a little dressing to go on one of his salads and for once laid the foundation with just a small amount of oil and vinegar. Then he added mustard, barbecue sauce, lemon juice, pickle juice, tomato juice, onion juice which he obtained by pressing onion slices in my

Northern Trip Is Talk Topic For Optimists

John Ryan was the speaker of the Optimist Club Tuesday noon at Bothwell Hotel, bringing very vividly through words and pictures the story of some of his experiences on the fishing trip taken last fall up in the far north region. In the party, also, was Frank Wagner, Sedalia; George Harry, Versailles, and a man from St. Joseph.

The party went as far as they could by car and then had to be flown in to the region around Three River Bay where the only inhabitants are Eskimos and the only transportation, except by plane, is dog sled.

The pictures were very colorful and beautiful, the story had not only the thrill of real adventure but humor as Ryan related it.

The meeting was presided over by Ed Mitchell, president, and invocation was given by Wray Schroeder. Music was by Mrs. Mae Moser Pulliam.

Rev. Charles Hendrickson was a guest and a new member.

Accidents

The intersection of Second and Monticello was the scene of a two-car collision at 12:27 p.m. Tuesday.

Involved were a 1963 International truck, driven south on Monticello by Thomas P. Rodgers, 1921 South Beacon and a 1961 Ford being driven east on Second by Everett L. Stevenson, 501 East 14th.

The Rodgers truck received no damage while the Stevenson car received damage to the front end.

A minor accident occurred at the intersection of Cedar Drive and Greissen Road at 4:07 p.m. Tuesday.

Involved were a 1956 Ford truck being driven east on Greissen Road by Oscar Leslie, 2326 South Ingram and a 1960 Buick being driven north by Faye Bertha Harper, Nelson.

The Leslie car sustained damage to the right front and the Harper car was damaged on the left front.

An accident at the intersection of Pettis and Washington resulted in no injuries Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The cars involved were a 1957 Buick, owned by Lawrence Kerr, 517 West Morgan, and a 1955 Chrysler being driven west on Pettis by Floyd M. Perry, Des Moines, Iowa. According to police investigation the Kerr car was parked.

Perry received a police summons for careless and imprudent driving and is to appear in police court, Feb. 26.

An accident on U.S. Highway 65 at the Country Club Blvd., at 9:21 p.m. Tuesday involved two automobiles and two large tractor-trailer outfits. The accident was due to slick pavement covered with hay which had been knocked from one of the trailers as it went under the M-K-T underpass.

Serious as the accident was, none of the occupants of the cars and tractors reported no serious injuries, and no one went to the hospital for treatment.

According to the police report the International tractor-trailer loaded with bales of hay had passed under the overpass and caught it ripping away approximately 25 to 30 bales of hay some breaking and scattering over the road. The tractor pulled to the side of the road and parked.

A few minutes later, a 1963 Ford sedan driven by Mrs. Frances L. Amerine, 1106 South Massachusetts, approached County Club Blvd. and came to a stop preparing to make a left turn. She had to wait until an approaching car, a 1963 Dodge Dart convertible, driven by Henry H. Barnholt, Route 1, Smithton, which was headed north, could pass.

In the meantime the large International tractor, driven by Orin I. Taylor, 44, Kansas City, headed south and pulling an Apex Fast Freight trailer, came upon the scene. Taylor said he tried to stop but due to the slickness of the pavement due to the icy condition covered with the hay, was unable to do so.

The tractor-trailer jack-knifed striking the Amerine car from the rear knocking it forward, and striking the convertible on the left side with the right front end of the tractor. When the tractor hit the convertible it slashed the left side of the body open just behind the driver's seat, and the right front wheel of the tractor broke off. The trailer in the jack-knife procedure the trailer swung out and smashed the rear of the hay trailer knocking that unit forward.

The trailer loaded with bales of hay was pulled by a tractor driven by Charles M. Wheeler, 52, of Ozark, Missouri. Wheeler after picking up the scattered hay was able to drive his unit on to its destination.

Walter Shoemaker's wreckers towed the tractor-trailer of Taylor to town and also the convertible. The car of Mrs. Amerine was driven to the Thompson-Greer Ford garage.

The Ford had the back end smashed in, the trunk lid being ripped open, rear glass knocked out, and the body of the car damaged from the impact.

The damage to Taylor's unit consisted of the loss of the right front wheel, front fender and bumper, and the right rear side of the trailer body ripped open.

The Dodge Dart body was extensively damaged as was the convertible top. No damage resulted to the tractor-trailer unit carrying the hay.

A 1956 Dodge driven by William J. Hutchinson, 30, Smithton, and a 1957 Buick driven by Roy A. Wood, 19, Smithton, were involved in an accident in the intersection of Clay and Sasafra in Smithton at 7:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Better Human Relations K&F Subject

Philosophy intermingled with wit on the subject of better human relations through communication, was the theme of a talk by Dr. Royal L. Garff, of the University of Utah, before the Sedalia Knife and Fork club dinner meeting in Bothwell Hotel Tuesday night.

The speaker was introduced by Program Chairman Donald Barnes. Invocation was by Mrs. Foster Scotton.

Dr. Garff emphasized the power of words and their use in effecting communication in the interest of better understanding among peoples of the world and of communities and families. This, he said, is a neglected technique that should be revived.

"Don't blow your top," he appealed to his listeners. "Talk things over. You can't defend what you don't understand. So don't throw gasoline on a subject of controversy about which you are uninformed."

President Clinton Muller called upon members to stand for a moment in silent prayer in memory of two departed members: Jack Funk and Mrs. Charles L. Hanley.

The following guests were introduced: Mrs. John Lewis, guest of Mrs. C. F. Scotton; Miss Alma Adams, guest of Mrs. Carl Appell; Mrs. Leo Rowley, Mitchell, S. D., guest of her daughter, Mrs. James Giokaris; the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Doering, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Muller.

A nominating committee consisting of James T. Denny, chairman, James Giokaris and James McNeil submitted the names of six members as candidates for the board of directors.

The membership elected the following: the Rev. Garner S. Odell, William B. Rich and Mrs. Doretta Waite.

Assisting Mr. Denny and Mr. McNeil as tellers were: Paul Hedderich and George H. Scruton.

Serving on the reception committee were: Mrs. Minnie Allcorn, Mrs. Mabel Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Heacock and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Temple, Jr.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, March 24 when the speaker will be Charles McCullers on the subject of "Four Wheel Drive."

ard Joos, who investigated the accident, said the intersection was covered with snow and ice at the time of the accident.

The Buick was traveling west on Clay, and the Dodge was traveling north on Sasafra. The left front fender of the Dodge hit the left rear fender of the Buick. Both were driven away under their own power.

Claims Elbel Innocent Of Federal Rap

TOPEKA (AP)—An attorney for Kansas City investor-developer Donald R. Elbel said Tuesday his client is innocent of government charges that he mulcted depositors of the Coffeyville Loan and Investment Co.

Murray Randall, Elbel's counsel, told a U.S. district court jury in his opening trial statement that if it had not been for unpredictable receivership of the Arizona Savings and Loan Co. at Phoenix, the C.L.I.C. would not have gone bankrupt.

An agreement was made June 9, 1959, with Arizona Savings and Loan on refinancing Elbel's personal obligations, Randall said. Only six days later, however, the Arizona firm went into the hands of receivers.

Elbel is specifically indicted with using the mails to defraud in a scheme to obtain and receive deposits, and to sell shares in the C.L.I.C. when he knew it to be failing financially.

The government introduced exhibits of books and stock records of various Elbel holdings in an effort to establish its claim that he purchased the C.L.I.C. in February 1958 and made it the keystone of his multimillion dollar real estate operations.

His financial empire collapsed soon after and the C.L.I.C. went into receivership in June 1959.

Richard L. Becker, Coffeyville attorney and bankruptcy trustee for the C.L.I.C., testified Tuesday that an audit of the company made when he took over in July 1959 showed it to have a "serious deficit."

The C.L.I.C. showed $2,300,000 in listed assets, $2,050,000 of which was in loans due from Elbel companies, Becker said.

C.L.I.C. investors may realize about 60 cents on the dollar when liquidation of all Elbel assets, started in 1961, is completed, he testified.

Becker admitted on cross examination that had Elbel's agreement with Arizona Savings and Loan been consummated, C.L.I.C. would have been solvent. He also testified that Elbel participated in negotiations which have resulted in an award of $558,000 in cash to the C.L.I. from the Arizona firm's receivership. The money came from obligations due on various Elbel holdings.

Mrs. Green said she awoke from a nap to see one of the men holding a pistol to her face. She was bound with some of her husband's neckties and freed herself soon after the men left.

Masked Men Rob KC Woman In Her Driveway

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A Kansas City woman had just returned home from a shopping trip with her 4-year-old son Monday when two men swerved their car into her driveway (at 7931 Campbell) as she stepped from her station wagon.

Mrs. Phyllis Kraft, 35, told police one of the men jumped from the car, approached her with a gun in his hand and demanded her 4-carat, emerald cut diamond ring valued at $5,000. "He started pulling on it (the ring), but it was tight," she said. "I pleaded with him to let me take it off, but he kept pulling. He cut my finger getting it off."

She said the robber had a black silk scarf wrapped around his head. After he got her engagement ring, she said, he ran back to the car and the two men drove off.

She said her son, Steven, crawled to the floor of the station wagon and she could hear him crying.

Mrs. Kraft is the wife of Dr. Jacob Kraft. She said she and another victim of a recent jewelry robbery, Mrs. Irene Nelson, 37, are members of the same country club.

The tables were attractively decorated in red, white and blue with an arrangement of red and white carnations in a blue container, made by Mrs. Paul Read and Mrs. Norman Wehmeyer. Favors were orange incense candles in white shells which came from Florida.

Mrs. Read, program chairman, started the program with the singing in unison of "America, the Beautiful." The group was divided into five sections each singing a different song.

Battle of the Sugar Cubes

A mass oral immunization program for the prevention of polio is underway in Pettis county with the first clinic in Sedalia scheduled for Sunday, March 1 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. A second one will be held Sunday, April 5, and a third Sunday, May 3.

On each occasion the clinics will be at the following schools: Heber U. Hunt, Horace Mann, Whittier, Washington and C. C. Hubbard.

This largest health program in Pettis county is co-sponsored by the Sedalia Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Bothwell Memorial Hospital Medical Staff.

In process for some time is the tremendous job of organizing a community-wide team requiring the co-operation of pharmacists, physicians, nurses, business men and individuals from many civic groups.

The Junior Chamber, notable for its vitality in civic enterprises requiring organizational effort, has undertaken the Sabin on Sunday project, the purpose of which is to eradicate poliomyelitis.

This will require widespread immunization of children and adults in age groups from six months to 100 years. All should be orally immunized regardless of past polio immunizations or polio vaccinations, according to the medical authorities. Minors must have a consent card signed by a parent. These have been passed out in the schools.

Those who take the oral method will find it quite different from the jab in the arm with injectable vaccine. It's as simple as chewing a sugar cube, and swallowing. Then you're immune.

Naturally there will be some skeptics who will ignore and deride the immunization program. These we always have with us in almost any progressive undertaking. But the sponsors are making a decided effort to reach everyone in a wide spread publicity campaign and by personal contacts.

A recommendation of preventive medicine is to meet a disease on its way, not after its arrival. This is just what the Junior Chamber of Commerce is attempting to do in its appeal for an overwhelming response by Pettis Countians to take advantage of what the free polio clinics offer.

Personnel Changes at Trouble Spots

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, in search of better if not new ways to handle trouble spots like Latin America and Viet Nam, just moves one man in on another without waiting for resignations.

But Fidel Castro's Cuba still seems to baffle him, as it did President John F. Kennedy.

He was President less than a month when he decided to improve on the Latin-American policies he inherited from Kennedy. Having decided, he moved suddenly.

He lifted Thomas C. Mann, 51-year-old Texan, from his job as ambassador to Mexico and put him in charge of all Latin-American affairs with the title of assistant secretary of state and White House adviser.

Mann thus replaced Edwin M. Martin who thereupon took a few months off before becoming an ambassador in Latin America.

So far there has been no noticeable change in this country's Latin-American policy but meanwhile the Panamanians rioted against Americans in the Panama Canal Zone, causing new trouble.

In South Viet Nam, which this country has backed for eight years against the Communist guerrillas of North Viet Nam, the situation seems to be going from bad to worse.

On Dec. 14, the same day Johnson elevated Mann, Roger Hilsman, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, was heard from in a speech which got a lot of attention but contained nothing new.

Although Hilsman's province included Viet Nam, that day he talked of Red China. He said the United States thought its policy of "strength and firmness" would produce changes in China, now full of hostility.

Shortly afterwards came a change, but not in Red China. There was another coup in South Viet Nam, another change in government, and the increasingly confident Red guerrillas began assassinating Americans in Saigon.

This more than anything brought home to Americans the realization that, despite all the U.S. aid to South Viet Nam, it was the other side that was making progress. Johnson is very sensitive to public reaction.

This week the State Department announced all matters involving Viet Nam would be placed under William H. Sullivan, acting as special assistant to Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

In addition Sullivan will head a new committee to examine and pull together American policy in Viet Nam. The committee includes senior officers from the State and Defense departments and other agencies.

Tuesday, one day after the announcement about Sullivan, Hilsman, a key official in the past in developing U.S. policies on Viet Nam, resigned.

Hilsman said his resignation was "not related to policy issues" and the White House said he wanted to return to teaching.

But there is no indication Johnson is going to do anything new about Fidel Castro's Cuba or that there is anything new he can do. Tuesday night Rusk made a speech.

He spoke almost mournfully of the fact that the British and French persist in selling trucks and buses to Castro and he said "there will be no retreat from our policy toward Cuba" so long as it is a threat.

This, like Hilsman's speech on China, wasn't new, either.

Dialogue from Washington

By VERA CLAY

The new $36 million pink palace into which the Smithsonian Museum has moved opened its door to the American public and, after the first weekend of open house, museum officials are reeling.

The gaping, pushing, shoving public overwhelmed them — nearly 55,000 visitors came, saw and made a shambles of the place. They behaved as though the magnificent new museum was a carnival ground and not an institution of historical reverence.

A trail of litter was spread from one end of the place to another; the washrooms were left in a disgraceful state while parents allowed their children to climb all over the exhibits — even to the top of the old locomotives. They broke barricades, hastily put up to save the exhibits from wreckage and managed, somehow, to destroy a crushed cork agricultural exhibit.

This correspondent, over and over again, has called attention to the deplorably bad public manners which constantly are displayed at national shrines, museums, parks, concert halls, gymnasiums, stadiums and other sites where large numbers of people congregate. It is inexcusable that grown men and women do not take more pride in their surroundings. It is even worse when some of the places they desecrate are maintained by their own tax paying dollars. The new Smithsonian building is one of the showplaces in the capital; there is nothing like it anywhere. It houses the story of our country from the gowns of the First Ladies of other eras to the horseless carriage, cigar store Indian and barbershop pole.

It is not necessary that we get down on our hands and knees and pray to our ancestors. But, courtesy demands that we at least do not make a picnic grounds of a monument to our past.

We are not savages and we should not behave that way in public, nor blame the children. They only ape the ways of their elders. If we continue our present ways we soon will be known as a nation of pigs and asses.

Museum officials are elated that the public has responded so enthusiastically to the new building and they welcome children with all their hearts. They want to help them, educate them and show them around. But, they hope that in the future Americans will treat its past with a little more respect and not go out of its way, carelessly, to destroy it.

The Doctor Says

Thyroid Makes Substance To Adjust Body Energy

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Of what use is the thyroid gland? Like your left thumb, you don't appreciate it until it's disabled.

The thyroid is one of the glands of internal secretion. It manufactures a substance called thyroxine which is an essential regulator of the body's metabolism or the rate at which the body uses energy.

When the production of this hormone falls below par, hypothyroidism results. In its mildest form this causes a slowing up of mental and physical activity. In its severer form it results in a condition known as myxedema in which there is listlessness and generalized swelling.

Fortunately, this can be treated satisfactorily by giving thyroid substance from cattle in carefully regulated doses.

At the other end of the spectrum are those persons whose thyroids put out too much thyroxine. They have a high basal metabolic rate, a fast pulse, a fine tremor of the hands and they become very jittery for no external reason. They may have protruding eyeballs and, in a room where others are comfortable, they usually feel too warm.

The treatment of this condition requires great skill and no one method is applicable to all cases. In children and young adults, such antithyroid drugs as propylthiouracil, methimazole and carbimazole usually give the best results. Some doctors prefer to remove part of the thyroid but it is difficult to determine just how much to take out. When too much is removed, hypothyroidism develops and thyroid substance must be given. When not enough is removed there is a gradual return to the hyperthyroid state and the operation must be repeated or some other form of treatment must be tried.

In older adults the giving of radioactive iodine has largely replaced operation but is subject to the same hazards. Since the radioactive iodine selectively destroys thyroid tissue, too little will not relieve the victim's symptoms and too much will cause myxedema. There is as yet no sure way to determine exactly how much will be required by any given patient. Doctors have gotten old and gray trying to lick this problem and some day they will do it. Meanwhile, the experienced doctor gets some amazingly good results. When complications do arise he has the means to treat them.

This brings us to another condition—the larger goiter without any hyperactivity of the thyroid. This is usually due to a deficiency of stable (nonradioactive) iodine in the water supply. The Great Lakes region is sometimes referred to as the Goiter Belt because the water in that part of the country lacks iodine. Now iodized salt takes care of this problem for most people. The large goiters that caused no symptoms except those due to pressure on the windpipe are rarely seen.

Water Pole Plants Slowly

DEAR POLLY — When watering house plants such as vines that climb a pole, use a paper cup with small holes punched in the bottom. It may be placed on top of the pole so the water feeds through slowly and can soak into the pole. Liquid fertilizer can be given to plants in this manner. — A. K. R.

GIRLS — This I like. I have one particularly bushy plant that requires quite a bit of water and how often I have made a mess by trying to water it too fast. I made only three holes in the cup and went to something else while the water dribbled through with no overflowing and no mess. — POLLY

DEAR POLLY — Patterned Argyle socks are often crisscrossed by single lines of color which require their corresponding number of dangling bobbins. I reduce the number of bobbins by omitting the crisscross lines. When the main design is finished, I embroider these lines with a small blunt upholstery needle. This lessens the annoying tangling of so many bobbins and makes these lines, on the right side, stand out better. The wrong side looks much neater and less bulky, too. — FREDIA

DEAR POLLY — I am just 11 years old but I have a hint. When I give a gift to a little child, I spell his or her name with shiny pennies on top of the package. They can be taped or lightly pasted to the package. — GAIL GIRLS — We welcome good hints from readers of all ages.

Stick with us and by the time you have homes of your own, housework will be a breeze. — POLLY

DEAR POLLY — I saved the tubes that came inside of the Christmas wrapping paper I bought last year and pushed them well back between the padding of chairs and sofa to keep the slip covers in place. They work better than the rolled-up paper or magazines I used to use. So now I save every cardboard tube that comes my way. — L. W.

DEAR POLLY — Plastic tablecloths seem so porous that it is hard to keep them looking new without rubbing the design off with household cleansers. Try using some hair shampoo on a wet sponge. It gets the dirt off but not the design.

Does your husband say you are hiding his things when you put them away and he cannot find them? I solved this problem by placing a "lost and found" box in my kitchen. Now anytime I find a screw driver, nails, etc., they automatically go into the box and my husband always knows where to look for them. — MRS. P. C.

DES MOINES REGISTER: Public Housing in Small Cities. — Mention of public housing usually brings to mind big cities and massive housing projects. A more accurate picture is that of modest-sized projects located in smaller communities. For some years, the great majority of public housing units have been found in communities of less than 25,000 population.

The results of recent local referenda suggest growing interest in public housing among the very smallest cities and towns in rural areas. Of the nine most recently reported votes held on the issue, eight were in communities having less than 2,500 population. The largest city in the group had a population of 3,500. Voters in all but one of these communities gave overwhelming approval to construction of public housing units. The vote in one town — Lynch, Neb. — was 100 per cent in favor of having the federal government subsidize 30 housing units for the elderly. The vote in Corning, Ia., on a similar project was 85 per cent in favor.

Some of this small town interest in public housing is doubtless due to the desire to develop attractions to attract and hold resi-

Another Leak In a Secret Document

By JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — Two confidential documents have now turned up revealing how Texas's lanky, laconic Congressman Albert Thomas used his influence to get the telephone contract at the Houston Space Center for Southwestern Bell.

A board had recommended that the contract go to General Telephone, which offered the best deal. But the board was overruled by space chief James Webb after Thomas phoned the space agency.

A phone call from Thomas, who handles space funds for the House appropriations committee, is an important event at the space agency. The call was taken by Webb's aide, R. P. Young, who summed up the conversation in an urgent confidential memo.

"Congressman Albert Thomas called me," wrote Young, "and said that he heard that there is a controversy developing between General Telephone and Bell Telephone in Texas as to who will provide service to the Houston space flight center."

"He said he would like to provide some free unsolicited and unbiased advice on this matter. He recommended that we go to Bell for the service and reported that his recommendation was based upon the fact that he frequently gets reports or complaints in letters to him from Texas constituents that General Telephone just didn't provide support and service to its customers."

Proper Persons Notified

"He noted that the importance and urgency of our work made it mandatory that we are insured the best type of facilities and services."

"I thanked Congressman Thomas for this information and assured him I would pass it on to the proper persons in NASA."

Not long afterward, Southwestern Bell acknowledged its gratitude to Thomas in a confidential memo to employees.

"The Southwestern Bell Telephone Company has been awarded the contract," reported the memo, "to provide communications for the NASA space lab, located in the Clear Creek area. There were two telephone companies in competition for the right to serve this important installation."

"Residents of the Houston area owe a debt of gratitude to Congressman Albert Thomas and Bob Casey (Thomas's Houston colleague) for their efforts in getting the space lab located here. "Kiss away the hurt, my grandmother! I need penicillin!"

Mt. Vernon Restoration, Talk Topic

B. B. Ihrig, Smithton, was the speaker at the Feb. 22 meeting of Osage Chapter, DAR, held at Holiday Inn.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Robert Johnson and he chose as his subject: "Little Known Fact of the History of Mt. Vernon."

More than a hundred years ago, said the speaker, the lovely mansion of George Washington was falling into ruins. It would have been lost entirely had it not been for a few determined women brought together to preserve the most popular historical shrine in America. Almost 50 years after the death of Washington, it was the tolling of a Potomac steamboat's bell that aroused the attention of a woman passenger.

As the boat passed Mt. Vernon, it was not an inspiring sight the old mansion presented. It was a picture of neglect, decay and desolation and the passenger, Mrs. Robert Cunningham, could not get it out of her mind.

Letter Asks Question

Mrs. Cunningham wrote to her daughter describing the scene and her emotions in viewing it. She ended with a question: "If the Congress of the United States, and the legislature of Virginia, both of whom had been approached but had refused to act, 'why should not the women of the South get together and save this relic?'"

The letter set off the chain reaction that rescued Mt. Vernon. The daughter, Ann Pamela Cunningham, although physically handicapped and confined for 21 years to a wheel-chair, organized and incorporated an association composed of a woman from each of the United States, who raised $200,000 and bought the place. They raised more money and re-conditioned it and it has been held inviolate for more than 100 years.

Gets Many Gifts

Through the years Mt. Vernon has been the recipient of many rich gifts, the most modern fire fighting equipment was presented by Henry Ford and long before power lines were strung across Virginia, the designs for an individual power system were drawn and presented by Thomas A. Edison. The process of finding authentic furnishings still goes on.

It is not a museum of American history, but it stands today as the home of Washington. It is visited yearly by more than a million people. Kings, archbishops, cardinals and popes have paid their respect.

Princess Elizabeth, now queen of Great Britain, after viewing it, remarked: "It's a cozy little place" and one visitor said, "There is the heart of America—grateful children will make their pilgrimage to it as a shrine."

The Mt. Vernon Ladies Association of the Union, consisting of about 48 women, holds title to the property and it is safe in their hands.

Monument to Washington

"At any rate," the speaker concluded, "the beautiful home on the Potomac has stood as a monument to George Washington since the day he died, but since its restoration it has also commemorated the patriotism, the energy and the intelligence of the American women."

The meeting was called to order by the regent, Mrs. Ira Leiter. The singing of the National anthem was led by Mrs. L. H. Hodges and Mrs. J. C. Saunders led in the flag rituals. Mrs. Lena Boothe, chaplain, gave the invocation.

For the National Defense report, Mrs. Kenneth Miller read an article written by former President Harry S. Truman.

A tribute to Mrs. H. Clay Jones was given by Miss Jessie Browneller, who expressed appreciation for her long and faithful membership in Osage Chapter. The 50 year pin was awarded and was pinned on her by her daughter, Mrs. Stevens McClure.

Miss Mamie McCormick, registrar, was instrumental in having Mrs. Jones' original DAR paper on display.

Introduces Contestants

Mrs. Pearl Stuart, chairman of the Good Citizens committee, introduced the high school girls, all seniors, who were selected to compete in the state DAR Good Citizens contest. They are Janet Burford, Carolyn Byrd, Kay Carlson, Emma Jean Hedgpeth and Marilyn McCorkle. Each was presented with a Good Citizen pin. The girls' mothers were guests and introduced by Mrs. Stuart.

Other guests introduced were: Miss Catherine Jones, granddaughter of Mrs. H. Clay Jones and guest of Mrs. C. F. Scotten; Mrs. James Ryan and Mrs. R. E. Raouls, guests of Mrs. C. H. Bliss and Miss Lima Crole, guest of her mother, Mrs. Claude Crole.

Preceding the meeting a dessert luncheon was served, tables decorated with patriotic colors in recognition of All American Mrs. James C. Alexander was chairman of hostesses. Those assisting were: Mrs. L. H. Hodges, Mrs. Earl Orr, Mrs. Harley P. Vaughan, Mrs. Henry Harris, Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Sr., Miss Margaret Alexander, Mrs. J. E. Mitchell and Miss Dorothy Alexander.

Three New Members At Maplewood Club

Mrs. John Brazos, Mrs. Chris Rau and Mrs. Summer, new members, met with seven other members at the Ernest Hopper home for the February meeting of the Maplewood Homemakers.

After a contributive dinner, Mrs. George Nelson, president, opened the business meeting. It was voted that each member donate $2 to the Hall Fund to help defray expenses.

A valentine exchange was held and as roll call each member read her valentine. Mrs. Banning gave the devotional, "Keep Awake."

The goal of the club is to contribute to the Crippled Children's Center and Mrs. Nelson read a list of materials needed by the Center. It was voted to send $10 to the Center.

New Heavy King

Cassius Proves Fists Talk Just as Loud as His Words

MIAMI BEACH (AP)—Cassius Clay, the fascinating Louisville blowhard who proved his fists talk as loud as his words is the new king of the heavyweights and the boxing world still buzzed today over the bizarre events that led to the dethronement of the champion who couldn't lose, Sonny Liston.

The bull-strong, tiger-mean Liston yielded his crown while slumped ingloriously in his corner between the sixth and seventh rounds, blood gushing from a gash under his left eye and his left shoulder in severe pain.

It went into the books as a seventh round technical knockout—one of the most astounding ring upsets of all time but one that left the millions of fans pondering unanswered questions.

How did it happen? When did it happen? Why didn't Liston, the awesome ring killer, demolish the loquacious Kentuckian as he had done to his other rivals in the last three years?

Liston was rushed to the St. Francis Hospital where eight physicians subjected him to a 3½ hour series of X-rays and other examinations.

The group issued a statement which said the champion had suffered an injury of the left shoulder which prevented him from defending himself.

The statement said there was a "separation and a tear of muscle fibers" with some bleeding but gave no other details.

Liston, dressed in a red shirt and slacks, pushed his way out of the hospital without comment. His aides said he planned to go to his Miami Beach temporary home and would make no statement immediately.

His purse from the gate attendance had been ordered held up by the Miami Beach Boxing Commission pending outcome of the doctors' examination.

Jack Nilon, the ex-champion's adviser, said Liston wrenched his shoulder in training but that the two of them decided to try to bluff their way through "because we thought we could get away with it."

Nilon pointed out that Liston stopped boxing six days before the fight but others recalled that

Sonny showed no signs of an ailment in other phases of training and even declared himself "in the best shape ever."

This was just one of the many contradictory aspects of the bout, which was a financial flop at the gate with 8,000 paying only $400,000 for the privilege of watching — half of the figure needed to break even.

Clay, the exultant, hysterical and almost berserk new champion, himself sought to erase any stigma from his spectacular victory even before any had been officially cast.

Unsettled by the ringing boos that rocked the arena, he screamed to all within earshot: "This was no fix. I closed both of his eyes. He didn't touch me. I didn't stop the fight. The doctors did."

Seasoned boxing writers, accustomed to all sorts of weird occurrences in this sometimes sordid sport, were seeking answers to questions which they said left them befuddled.

Why wasn't Liston, the sullen destroyer who twice put away former champion Floyd Patterson in the first round, able to unleash the same devastating punching power on the fast but supposedly vulnerable Clay?

In the fifth round, when Clay came out at the bell blinking and groping his way around the ring, as if half-blinded, why wasn't the despoised champion able to nail him with his fistful of dynamite?

Even if his shoulder was painful, why didn't Liston, a brute of a man, try to bull his way through, waiting for perhaps a lucky punch, against a fighter renowned as a powder-puff hitter?

Doesn't this amazing development set the stage for a return bout, which might set financial records yet undreamed of in the sport?

Hysterical Excitement For Cassius

MIAMI BEACH (AP)—For maybe the millionth time, he opened his mouth wide and screamed, "I am the greatest," but now no good-natured guffaws came back at Cassius Clay — only applause.

The Louisville Lip, who had been regarded by many as more of a comedian than a fighter, had just pulled one of the most stunning ring upsets of all time by stopping Sonny Liston, the brutish heavyweight champion, on a seventh round technical knockout.

And the handsome Clay was hysterical with excitement as he walked into an interview room to talk with newsmen. Most of them had picked Liston to knock out the young challenger in an early round. Some even called the match a hoax.

"I just played with him," Clay bellowed, and this time his words were not those of a ballyhoo artist, but a real champ.

He seemed close to tears of joy.

He belittled the ex-champ who, until Tuesday, had been considered one of the most terrifying fighters ever to climb into a ring.

"That ugly old bear never got in a good lick," laughed Clay, a seemingly hopeless underdog who had befuddled the ominous Liston with his dancing ring style, drained him of his confidence, and beat him four rounds out of six before Liston quit with a shoulder injury.

"If he wants a rematch, he can have it, but I don't think he's gonna want it."

"He was such an amateur he ought to have to work his way back up. I want Doug Jones and Eddie Machen."

From the ring where he scored his remarkable triumph, boxing's wonder boy went directly to his dressing room for a wild, tearful greeting by members of his family and his associates. When the bedlam quieted, he went to meet reporters unshowered and wearing his ring robe.

Still shaken with emotion, Clay called out: "Look at me! I'm still pretty! But Liston's face is burning. I hurt him so bad he had to go to a hospital."

Efforts were made to ask him questions, but it was impossible to get a word in as he jabbered on. "You reporters made it hard on me," he cried. "Never make me an underdog. Nobody but a fool would want to fight me."

"And you can't call it a fix," he added. "I didn't stop it. The doctor did."

"Who is the greatest?" he called. After the question had been repeated three times, some newsmen chimed in to his satisfaction, "you are!"

Several times, Clay walked away from the microphone, but he kept coming back, wanting to get some more steam out of his system.

He hooted at a Miami Beach Boxing Commission doctor's report that he was "scared to death" when he put on a frantic show at the weigh-in.

"I wasn't scared," he shouted. He didn't need to say this to newsmen who had seen him look straight into Liston's cobra-like stare when they first faced in the ring, then go so far as to clown with the champion at times, with his arms straight down at his sides.

"Who was scared?" he called. "I am the king. I can fight forever. I can waste eight rounds of energy at a weigh-in and still win."

Wininger Defends Tour Title

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Debnair Bo Wininger, once again a part time player on the pro golf circuit, is the last swinger to have successfully defended a tour championship.

That was last year when the 41-year-old Wininger won his second consecutive victory in the New Orleans Open.

The prematurely gray Wininger, in the play-for-pay ranks for 12 years, sets out Thursday to win a third straight crown at New Orleans, which has its richest jackpot ever this year with a $50,000 purse.

In the modern era of golf—since World War II—only three other pros have done it.

Arnold Palmer turned the trick twice, winning both the Texas and the Phoenix Opens thrice in succession. Gene Littler did it in the Tournament of Champions and Billy Casper Jr. accomplished the feat at Portland, Ore.

Palmer and Casper, winner of the 1958 New Orleans Open, are both competing here this year.

Wininger returned to the tour full time in late 1962 after a hunting trip to Africa. Thus far this year he has played in only two tournaments, tying for second in the Bing Crosby.

"I'll tell you more later in the week," he said. He carded a one-over par 73 in the pro-am Tuesday and his team tied for second, giving him a check of $395.00.

For Big 8 Meet

Missouri's Title Favorites Have Good Time, Distance

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The form chart for the 36th annual Big Eight indoor track championships Friday and Saturday shows Missouri's title favorites with nine of the best or second-best times or distances this season.

The Tigers have the best seasonal marks in five events, share the best in another event, and have the No. 2 man in three other events.

Robin Lingle, their middle distance star, owns the best marks in the mile, 1,000-yard run and 880-yard run — all three under the meet records.

Lingle will run only the mile and 1,000 because the 1,000 and 880 are run back-to-back. But his teammate, Charles Conrad, has the No. 2 season mark in the 880, with 1:53.3.

Kansas has two bests, shares two others and is second in three events. Nebraska is best in three events, shares the top in two. Here is the chart with the best seasonal mark in each event, with the meet record:

60-yard high hurdles—.07.1 by Jim Miller, Colorado. Meet record .07.2.

60-yard dash—.06.2 by Kent McCoughan, Nebraska. Frank Deramus, Oklahoma and Bob Hanson, Kansas. Meet record .06.1.

60-yard low hurdles—.06.9 by Norm Johnston, Iowa State; Preston Love, Nebraska; Hanson; Miller; and Ken Truelsen, Missouri. Meet record .06.7.

Mile—4:03.2 by Lingle. Meet record 4:06.5.

600-yard run—1:11.3 by Gil Gebro, Nebraska. Meet record 1:11.1.

440-yard dash—.49.5 by Dave Crook, Nebraska. Meet record .48.6.

2-mile run—9:05 by Bill Silverberg, Kansas. Meet record 9:03.1.

1,000-yard run—2:08.9 by Lingle. Meet record 2:11.6.

880-yard run—1:50.9 by Lingle. Meet record 1:52.5.

Mile relay—3:16.1 by Oklahoma State. Meet record 3:18.0.

Broad jump—24-2½ by Victor Brooks, Nebraska. Meet record 24.9.

Shot put—55-1¼ by Gene Crews, Missouri. Meet record 59-9¼.

High jump—6-9 by Ross Tunnell, Missouri. Meet record 6-10¼.

Pole vault—15-8½ by Floyd Manning, Kansas. Meet record 15-7¼.

A quick rundown shows six meet records already have been surpassed this season by league athletes, three by Lingle. He will pass up the 880, but this mark and three others have been closely approached. This means gunning. The opener will see St. Paul's Concordia against Appleton City, the second game Warrensburg Public High vs. Holden and the final will see Knob Noster playing Concordia Public High.

Grems Finish Season With Tipton Loss

The Sacred Heart Gremlins finished up their 1963-64 basketball season Tuesday night as they went down in defeat to the Ashland Eagles in the Class M Tournament at Tipton, 60-55.

The third quarter brought about a turn of events for the Gremlins. During the first half, Sacred Heart had played the underdog role. Sacred Heart put the Eagles back on their ears with 23 points.

Nevertheless the Gremlins were only able to chop off some of the large lead Ashland had built up in the first half. The Eagles had but to hold onto their four-point edge, which they did, to win the contest, plus adding another point in the final stanza.

Dennis Gartner was the leading scorer for the Gremlins with 12 points. High point honors for Ashland went to Garrett with 20 hits.

In the second game, Russellville stopped Sweet Springs 72-41. Russellville jumped to a substantial lead and Sweet Springs never threatened them.

First quarter was 17-8 Russellville and 18-13 in the second for a halftime lead of 35-21. The third was 20-5, and in the final Sweet Springs scored 15 points against their opponents 17.

Dale Bates was high point man with 17 and Keith West was next with 13 for Russellville while Weber had nine and Jacobs eight for Sweet Springs.

In the nightcap Osage High held to a lead made in the second quarter and from then on didn't give an inch to Boonville Catholic and won 55-51.

Boonville seemed to be hot in the opening quarter and appeared to be heading for a victory as they scored 18 to 10 points, but in the second period they faltered as Osage gathered in 15 to 6 points and had a halftime lead of 25-24. In the third period Osage picked up five more points scoring 17-12, and dropped two in the final as Boonville hit for 15-13.

Del Bringer was high pointer for Osage with 17 followed by Ed Wilson with 16 while Boonville's Ted Stock led his team with 16 followed by Frank Trotter with 11.

Games tonight: California vs. Stover at 6:30 o'clock; quarterfinals round game, Versailles vs. Tipton at 8 o'clock; also Cole Camp vs. Slater at 9:30 o'clock.

First Round Action Sets Fight Tempo

NEW YORK (AP)—"Stay away from him, Cassius, baby!" someone yelled in the first round when Sonny Liston advanced menacingly on Cassius Clay.

A few seconds later, after Clay had avoided numerous Liston lunges and countered with a series of left-right combinations, the same fan bellowed: "You can do it, baby. You can do it."

The action in the first round set the tempo, but the audience which watched the theater-television of the heavyweight title bout at the Paramount Theater on Broadway Tuesday night found it difficult to believe they were watching the boxing upset of the century.

And the sudden ending caught everyone by surprise. There was no announcement, just the sight of Clay leaping up and down in the middle of the ring.

In fact it wasn't until long after that Joe Louis, the former champion who helped Steve Ellis at the mike, announced that Liston had suffered a shoulder dislocation.

Although he completely outclassed Liston in the first round the feeling in the theater was that "the Big Bear" would eventually catch up with Clay who had been described at the weighin as a "man scared to death."

The fact that an upset was in the making began to sink in during the third round when Clay's jabs and combinations opened a cut under Liston's left eye.

"I think Clay is surprising the world," Louis' comment after the fourth round, brought a roar of assent from those present.

In the next two rounds Clay made Liston look clumsy as he easily avoided Sonny's rushes and kept his left hand poking into Sonny's face.

"I think Sonny is beginning to worry now," remarked Louis after the sixth round ended and just seconds before the unexpected ending.

"I whopped him, I whopped him," exulted Cassius into the theater-TV mike. "I am the greatest. I was setting him up for the eighth round, just as I promised, when they stopped it."

It didn't seem to matter that a minute later he remarked to Ellis: "I told you it would be the seventh, didn't I, Steve?"

Tigers Have No Trouble With Owls

By RONNIE COWAN
The Smith-Cotton Tigers, with little difficulty, smothered the Marshall Owls on the Marshall court Tuesday night by the score of 73 to 38. This overwhelming victory extended the Tiger winning streak to five in a row and their season record to 14-8.

The first period was the roughest one for Smith-Cotton, and proved to be the most profitable one, for the Owls. A seldom seen occasion took place in the first period, that being the fact that not one foul was committed by either team. Sedalia, with nine field goals, led at the quarters, 18 to 14.

Both teams slacked up a bit in the second period. But again the Tigers outscored the Owls, piling up a ten point lead at intermission.

The top five scorers on the Tiger team scored more than three-fourths of the total points. Jim Chapman, led Smith-Cotton's scoring with 15 points, with teammate Richard Cole only a point behind.

The Tigers played near perfect basketball in the last half, controlling the backboards and completing field goals to tally 41 markers, and allowing the hapless Owls only 14 points for the half.

Marshall's high point man for the evening was Phillips with 12 points. LaRue was close behind with ten points.

The "B" team, in an unsuccessful comeback attempt was defeated by the Marshall junior varsity 55 to 51. Tom Hassler and Butch Rozier, with 18 and 17 points respectively, led Sedalia in their vain attempt to pull the game out of the fire.

The next action for the Tigers takes place against the rival Jefferson City Jays on the Jays' home court. This game, preceded by a "B" contest, will be held Friday night.

Score by quarters: Sedalia 18 15 22 18 Marshall 14 9 6 9 Individual Scoring—Sedalia: Chapman 15, Spurling 8, Cole 14, Wallace 9, John Johnson 8, Casey 6, Wright 5, Crawford 4, John Johnson 2, Jim Lamy 1. Marshall: Phillips 12, LaRue 10, Farmer 8, Walling 8, Harris 2, Merrill 2.

High Record Of Attendance In Valley

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Missouri Valley Conference likely will surpass its record home attendance average of last season and Wichita is assured of a Valley record of more than 9,200 a game.

The conference already is above last season's record of 6,024 for 91 games, if new member Louisville is included. But the Cardinals played only one Valley team and can't compete for the title until next season.

With Louisville, the Valley is averaging 5,940 for 84 games with 10 games left. Wichita, Drake and Cincinnati have two games each, Wichita will have two sellouts of over 10,000, and it's likely the 1963 record will fall.

Wichita is certain to be the first team in league annals to average over 9,000. The Shockers have drawn 101,693 for 11 games, a 9,245 average. Cincinnati is next with a 7,153 average and Louisville has 6,742 in 15 games.

The other team totals, compiled largely from unofficial figures given in box scores, are 82,700 for Bradley in 13 games; St. Louis 82,600 in 13 games; Drake 62,950 in 11 games; Tulsa 52,026 in 14 games; North Texas 31,150 in 10 games.

Big Eight Bowl Policy Meeting

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The football bowl game policy of the Big Eight Conference, in view of the ending of the league's 11-year tieup with the Orange Bowl will be discussed at the league's quarterly meeting of athletic directors and faculty representatives, starting today.

Under present rules, Big Eight teams can go to any post-season bowl with approval of the faculty representatives. Last season, approval was automatic for the Bluebonnet and Gator bowls with the champion going to the Orange Bowl.

The end of the Orange Bowl opens the door to appearance in other New Year's Day games, but no contract with any bowl is in prospect. No change may be made in the league's bowl policy, but it's certain to be a major topic of discussion.

Athletic directors start their meetings a day early to get a start on the 1970 and 1971 football schedules. They also will meet Thursday and be in a joint session with the faculty representatives Friday morning. The faculty men will meet Friday afternoon and Saturday.

The league track coaches also will meet in connection with the 36th annual indoor track championships Friday and Saturday nights.

Wayne Duke, Big Eight executive director, said these topics also will be on the agenda of the faculty men and athletic directors:

1. The inter-conference letter of intent for all sports, started last year. Its forerunner was the Big Eight-Southwest letter of intent agreement for football only. The Big Eight is expected to join the inter-conference agreement, with May 20 again the signing date. Duke said his office had processed 272 letters of intent for high school football players since the Big 8-SWC signing date, Feb. 11.
2. Review of conference limits on football and basketball scholarships. The limits of 100 scholarships in football and 24 in basketball were voted at the December meeting, effective Sept. 1, 1965. Duke said procedures for administering the new setup will be outlined at this meeting.
3. Discussion of the conference rule on deciding the league representative in the NCAA basketball tournament. Under the present rule, a playoff is held if the co-champs split their season series. None is held if one co-champ defeats the other in both games. Kansas State is the current leader at 8-2 but Colorado has a chance with its 7-3 mark.

Calumet Farm Tries Today In Handicap Race

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Calumet Farm, which hasn't won a stakes event in many months, tries today with Princess Arle in the $50,000-added Black Helen Handicap and just might take the winner's share of $39,455.

Princess Arle carries 112 pounds in the 1 1/2 mile midweek feature, including jockey John L. Rotz, second in jockey standings at Hialeah, and probably will be second choice to Mrs. R. L. Reineman's Smart Deb, the 6-5 favorite.

Smart Deb, packing top weight of 122 pounds with Bill Hartack, will be conceding her eight opponents from seven to 12 pounds but she won the Matron Handicap at the Black Helen distance last year and the Beaugay. She also won the recent Cubaniana at seven furlongs and appears best at a mile or less.
